Acknowledgments

The family of the late Charles Laverne Williams would like to express our heartfelt and sincere appreciation to our family, friends and neighbors who visited the home, attended the wake, service and burial, provided emotional support and offered other acts of kindness to us during our time of loss. For those who telephoned, traveled long distances, sent floral tributes, cards, food, condolences and donations, we are truly grateful. Special thanks to the Hurst Chapel A.M.E. Church Family and Friends, and the Alexander Funeral Home and Staff for their assistance, support and professional handling of the services. Please accept this acknowledgment as an expression of our deepest gratitude.

We thank you with love!

Do You Want To Be Well?

*When Christ was in Jerusalem
He walked around one day
And saw a lot of sick folks
Who around a pool did lay,
Some were paralyzed and crippled,
And also some were blind
But all of them were hopeful
That a miracle they'd find.*

*For now and then an angel came
And stirred the water there
And whosoever first stepped in,
Could feel God's love and care.
And they were made completely whole
And able to walk out.
I'd guess they were not quiet then
But walked out with a shout.*

*But Jesus walked up to a man
Who lay there sick that day
And asked if he would like to be
Made whole and walk away.
The man said he had no one
Who could put him in, you know,
When the angel stirred the waters
He just simply was too slow.*

*And so for eight and thirty years
He'd been an invalid.
He didn't know who Jesus was
And what great things He did.
But Jesus told him he should rise,
Take up his bed and walk.
And in a flash the man was well;
This caused some folks to talk.*

*The Pharisees were all upset--
This was the Sabbath day
And he should not be carrying
His bed, he heard them say.
It's too bad folks will criticize
Some miracles and such
But happy are obedient folks
Who feel God's special touch.*

John 5:1-15
